Nov. 20 The New Lincoln School at the request of Mrs. Eleanor Strubel (169 &amp; 28) to open a drive for the William Head

Keppler Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Eleanor Russell and Mr. Ralph Cooke co-chairmen (because Sing loved his friends he could not be present). After a brief dinner, photographs taken, and the group announced, Mrs. Russell and I sang solo by solo. Mr. Brooks had said her voice was good. The Mrs. Strubel opened the drive and after a star assembly to $8,000. Then Mrs. Epstein took charge as chair for signature subscriptions at $100, and we got them. So that the evening closed with a subtraction of $10,000.

Three plays (i) Soliloquy and the King of Persia on the Falling of aged nights [Bank on my EDUCATION FOR TEACHING]

(ii) The legend inserted in Scowcroft's Reminiscences biography p 110; (iii), a class march in

Singing "We'll all take our places and show no unfaces,

We'll say all our lessons distinctly and slow;

For if we don't do it, our teachers will know it,

And into that corner we surely must go" [My 1923 Scrapbook, item No 464.]

Nov. 21 6 PM the Urban League of Greater Newark gave a tea in honor of my 85th birthday at the apartment of Mrs. Sophia Gurnell Jacobs (11 E 73). Mr. Lucius Brown spoke (after I had cut a birthday cake), giving a review of my connection with the League. Briefly, there they give me a well job to go with the well glove to the League in 1951. They also give me a pot of chrysanthemums, and Mrs. Schuhbeck adds a personal gift of a box of flowers.

Besides these five celebrations the Ohio Valley District of the Philosophy Education Society passed resolutions and the staff at the Tufts University in India celebrated my birthday on Dec. 2, 1956.
